SUMMARY

On August 21, 2013, Dao Dinh was sentenced to 108 months' imprisonment followed by 5 years' supervised release for the offense of Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Substances. Dinh commenced supervised release in the Central District of California on April 19, 2021.

Dinh has requested permission to travel Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, from August 27, 2021, to August 30, 2021. The purpose of this travel is to attend a friend's wedding. If approved, Dinh will be leaving on August 27, 2021 for Mexico, and returning to California on August 30, 2021.

Dinh is currently being supervised on an administrative low-risk caseload and remains employed full-time. He is currently compliant with his conditions of supervision and has no outstanding financial obligations. The Probation Office respectfully requests that he be permitted to travel to the Mexico on the aforementioned dates. He is aware that if the court does not authorize his travel, he must remain in the United States until he satisfactorily completes his term of supervision.

In addition, the Probation Office in the Central District of California is requesting permission to have discretion to approve or disapprove any future international travel requests without having to approach the court. If the court has any objections to this request, please indicate below.
